

February 6, 2012

ATTN: Shawano County Planning and Zoning Board/Highway Department

The Town of Herman approves the following areas for future placement of off-premise, directional signage for Annie's Campground, LLC, located within Town of Herman Right-of-Way and/or on private land owner's property within Town of Herman.

Background: Annie's Campground, LLC is a new business in the Town of Seneca, located four miles north of Highway 29, between Tilleda and Gresham on Roosevelt Road. It was formerly known as the Soaring Eagle Campground, which the current owners purchased as a foreclosure property on July 30, 2011. The only existing sign is located on the property at W12505 Roosevelt Road, Gresham.

Purpose: signs are necessary to direct traffic, customers, tourists, and outdoor lovers to this new, year 'round campground, Year 'round cabin rental, swimming, fishing, outdoor recreation area, Irish Pub and Grub, indoor playground, and more.

- Erecting new directional sign/arrow at intersection of Highway 29 and Leopolis Road
- Erecting new directional sign/arrow at intersection of Leopolis Road/Highway G and Roosevelt Road S. Schmidt Rd.
- Erecting new directional sign/arrow at intersection of Roosevelt Road and ~~Townline~~ Road

Respectfully,

Chairperson, Town of Herman

*Joseph R. De Behr for Lyle Grosskopf
Duane Spiegel 1st Bd*